WE MUST BACK THEM TO THE

LIMIT.

The news that American soldiers are in the trenches of Flanders fighting side by side with the French, will invest all our war preparation work with a more living interest. The departure of the drafts the armies of the boys in the can companies and training camps and everything connected with the tremendous undertaking upon which we have entered will have a deeper meaning to us. We now know of a certainty that all of these things are being done for a purpose and a stern purpose at that. Being but preparatory to the movement of larger bodies of troops across the Atlantic to complete their training and be held in readiness to take their places side by side with the

While the force which has been moved to the firing line is not so large, and is there largely for the purpose of completing a training for more vigorous action after its presence in the trenches. It is not that we must resolutely face it. It is not that those who have failed to receive refused to be sent to the front. We are in the thick of the conflict and are engaged in the most bitter struggle between two nations in modern times and that the stakes are high.

The continuous loss of men and more important. The loss of men no turning back, no slackening of effort but with the unflinching determination to win at whatever cost

I may see and we must see to it that we do not lose sight of the business through to the end.

Henceforth we will follow the news of the war with keen interest.

Knowing that the men who are wearing the uniform of the United States are in the thick of the conflict and are doing their utmost to bring the great struggle to a successful progress of their movements and take pride in the fact that they

Amazons in War

American women who may take up arms and join their Russian sisters in the battle against Germany, as forecast recently by Elhu Root of the American Mission to Russia upon his return from that country, do not need to seek for such a precedent in Europe. The history of the Western Hemisphere presents several instances of women who have taken part in the struggle against the North and South American

according to a war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic society from its Washington headquarters. The bulletin which is based upon a communication to the society from Harriet Chalmers

Adams, the explorer says

Winona, otherwise known as Toby

Riddle, is probably the only North American woman who ever led warriors into battle. In the war between the Modocs and the Pit River (California) Indians many years ago this dauntless Indian maid who had previously secured the title of Katchkone, Winona (sub chief) when she learned that her people were being driven from their homes by the rushing waters of the Pit River and saved the lives of two children. Assumed command of the Modocs when her husband was shot down

mounted on her war horse she rushed to the head of her Indian column and led a brilliant cavalry charge which resulted in a complete victory over the Pit River tribe.

For Winona price had its glories

no less than war. When the American

Peace Commission desired to treat with Captain Jack the Modoc chief

she acted as an intermediary and it was she who won the American

General F. V. Coville, Esq. from

Colonel A. B. Vose and Judge

J. A. Fairchild, not to go to a certain conference at which she knew Captain

Jack (who was her cousin) contemplated treachery. In spite of her warning the Americans attended the meeting. She accompanied them and was instrumental in saving two of the number.

Winona, subsequently married

Frank Riddle, a frontiersman from Kentucky. She is now a widow. The Modocs live on the Klamath

Indian reservation in southern Oregon and at present have a high reputation as their white comrades and may be confidently expected that they will give equally as good account of themselves.

When the young men are out from us we could be more confident in our confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

the confidence of our own men and

gon the United States government allowing her a pension of $25 a month.

A striking parallel to the heroism and fearlessness of the Russian women's Command of Death is to be found in the story of the women of

Paraguay during the Five Years' War

when Argonina, Brazil and Uruguay

all made war on the little republic in this terrible struggle after practically all the men had been killed and regiments had been formed of boys ranging from 12 to 15 years of age. Even the women were enlisted and struggled with despairing strength under a heartless ruler and general until the country which had boasted a population of 1,377,000 at the outbreak of the war had only 220,000 inhabitants.

The women of Paraguay were not only brave but also brave. They were not only brave but also brave.

They were not only brave but also brave. They were not only brave but also brave. They were not only brave but also brave. They were not only

Xmas Packages for Sammies Must Not Exceed Seven Pounds In Weight and Go Unsealed

(Clip This Out and Save It For Future Reference.)

Recognizing the unusual significance of the coming Christmas to our military, naval and civilian forces abroad, who will undoubtedly be the recipients of numerous gifts from friends and relatives at home, the Post Office Department, with the cooperation of other government departments interested in the welfare and comfort of the men or foreign soil has made special arrangements to effect timely delivery of all Christmas parcels addressed to the American Expeditionary Forces overseas.

In order that the department may realize its cherished purpose to place in the hands of the absent ones these tokens of friendship and esteem on Christmas morning, it is requested that the service be rendered to faithfully comply with the simple postal requirements outlined hereafter. Without the hearty co-operation of mailers this extraordinary service can not be adequately performed.

Preparation of Parcels for Mailing.—Owing to the unusual distance this mail must be transported, the handling and the storage it must undergo, it is absolutely necessary that all parcels be covered with wrappers of sufficient strength not only to resist pressure of other mail contained in the sacks in which it will be enclosed, but to withstand the weight of other sacks of mail, which in the long transit may be piled thereon. Furthermore, owing to the fact that the contents of each parcel must be scrutinized before leaving the United States, to obviate delay, due to censorship, the covering thereof should be so secured as to admit of ready inspection of the contents of the parcel.

Many combination packages will probably be made up, including miscellaneous toilet articles, candies, soaps, etc. The contents of such packages should be tightly bound, in order that the several articles may not be loosened in transit, damaging the parcel itself or causing damage to the covering of the parcel. Soldiers' Christmas boxes should be included in substantial containers. Candies in thin pasteboard boxes should be enclosed in wood, tin, or corrugated pasteboard. Sealed packages of candy, cigars, tobacco and toilet articles in simplest mercantile form may be enclosed within parcels without affecting the parcel post classification of such packages. Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments, such as razors, knives, etc., must have their points or edges protected so they can cut out through their coverings and damage other mail or injure postal employees. Cakes, plum puddings, similar delicacies should be packed in substantial tin containers, or equivalent receptacles, whether sent as separate packages or enclosed with other matter in a combination package.

How to Address Parcels.—Parcels must be fully, correctly and legibly addressed and conspicuously marked "Christmas Mail." The addressee's company, regiment or other organization, followed by the words "American Expeditionary Forces," should appear in the address. In the upper left corner the name and address of the donor must be placed. The superscription should be written in ink. In case a tag is used, the name and address of the sender, and addressee could also be written on the wrapper of the parcel for use, should the tag come detached.

Postage.—All parcels must be fully repaid by stamps affixed, at the rate of postage, or 12 cents for each pound or fraction. Patrons are cautioned against placing Red Cross stamps or stickers, other than postage stamps, on the address side of all matter, as such matter is there rendered unmailable. In the use of Christmas stickers care should be taken not to seal the parcels therewith, as sealed parcels are unmailable. The fourth-class rate of postage, which necessitates their being returned or held for postage, thus causing delay and possible disappointment, stamps are not permissible on the outside of any mail matter.

Permissible Additions.—In addition to the name and address of the sender, which is required, it is permissible to write or print on the covering of a parcel of fourth-class matter, or on a tag or label attached thereto, the occupation of the sender, and to indicate in a small space by means of marks, letters, numbers, names, or other brief description, the character of the parcel, but ample space must be left for the full address and for the necessary postage stamps. Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Please do not open until Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With Best Wishes," and the like, may be placed on the covering of the parcel in such manner as not to interfere with the address, or on a card enclosed therewith. Books may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions not of a nature of personal correspondence.

Mailing of Books.—The rate of postage on parcels of printed books weighing 8 ounces or less is one cent for each 2 ounces or fraction thereof. Parcels of books weighing more than 8 ounces are subject to the parcel post rate of 12 cents per pound or fraction. Perishable matter should be withheld from the mails unless it is absolutely certain that the contents will not deteriorate within six weeks from the date of mailing.

Prohibited Articles.—The principal articles classified as unmailable are intoxicants of all kinds, poisons, inflammable materials (including friction matches), or compositions which may kill or injure another, or damage the mails. As all contents of parcels will be carefully examined, mailers will refrain from including in parcels any intoxicating liquors or other articles classified as unmailable.

Parcels for the Expeditionary Forces abroad may not be registered or insured. Make Small Parcels.—Owing to the great demand on transportation space, patrons are urged to request to make their packages as small as possible. Parcels exceeding seven pounds in weight will not be accepted.

Additional information concerning the preparation and mailing of parcels may be obtained from local postmasters who should be consulted when patrons are in doubt.

A GOLDEN RULE SPIRIT IS MRS. GAVEN'S GUIDE

Marshwood Lady Would
Thank Anyone for Advice
That Restores Health.

"I am a different woman since taking Tanlac," declared Mrs. S. Gaven, a highly respected lady of Marshwood, near Scranton.

"I suffered from stomach trouble. My stomach was so weak that nothing I ate agreed with me. I used to get spells of indigestion that took all the energy out of me, and I would have to go to bed for a week at a time."

"I would have splitting headaches, and finally I felt like a nervous wreck. One of the worst experiences I had was the loss of sleep. The sleep I did get did not seem to rest me as it should, because I would get up more tired than when I went to bed. Tanlac was worth many dollars to me. I am a different woman since taking it."

"Just think, I can eat anything now without discomfort. I sleep sound throughout the entire night. I enjoy my meals with a relish. I recommend Tanlac because I believe in doing unto others as you would have others do unto you, and I would thank any one that would recommend anything that would bring back health to any half sick or nervous run-down woman."

Tanlac is sold here at the Connellsville Drug Co.

Tanlac can be secured in Dunbar at D. C. Eason's Drug store. Ad.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE LIFTED VEIL"—A five part Metro attraction in which Ethel Barrymore, the star, superb, excels herself, is being shown today. "The Lifted Veil," answers such questions as these: How much of the truth should a woman tell the man she is going to marry? Does a man really ever forgive? What is the best way to win forgiveness? How many are brave enough to give aid and shelter to the wayward persons who have been reclaimed? The picture deals with vital problems of men and women. Clarence Glendon, the part played by Miss Barrymore, is a woman who has sinned against the laws of society. She wanders idly into a church one day and is unperished by the sincerity of the young clergyman who preaches a masterful sermon that seems directed to her alone. She asks him for advice and he tells her to aid others. He interests her in a home for friendless girls who have offended as she has. With a heart full of love and sympathy, she adopts a beautiful young girl, and in working for her reformation and happiness achieves her own.

PETEY DINK—Cutting Down the Cost, Indeed!

MARY BROWNE, PLACED SECOND IN LIST

WORLD'S GREATEST WOMAN TENNIS PLAYERS.

When "Sailing Mary" Browne carried off the honors from Miss Mollie Bjurstedt in the two months' Red Cross series, she was given the unofficial crown of "world's greatest tennis player" among the feminine leaders.

In a series which called for endurance as well as ability, which included 26 matches, 55 sets and 536 games, she had outplayed her rugged Norse rival, who for two years had held the United States title and who was spoken of as the "world's champion."

Her victory included 15 matches to 11, 31 sets to 23, and 282 games to 234 for her Scandinavian rival.

If we add to this total the victory of Miss Browne over Miss Bjurstedt in the East-West series last March, the total assumes the following aspect:

Matches	Sets	Games
Miss Browne ....	16	235
Miss Bjurstedt ...	11	234

Skill and Education Tested.

This indicates a sure superiority in both endurance and skill on the part of the California candidate. The contestants have played under all courts ranging from asphalt to turf. There is no flaw and no alibi to the argument in favor of the California girl's supremacy at the present time.

It has been suggested that perhaps Miss Bjurstedt is below the form she displayed when first she came to this country, and which enabled her to win the United States championship.

It may be; but it is also true that none knows just what was Miss Bjurstedt's "best" at that time, since America's best, Miss Browne and Mrs. Bundy, were to retire.

An interesting sidelight to the situation was suggested by Fred Alexander, former national doubles champion and internationalist, who recently was here with the Red Cross tour. Alexander expressed the view that while reads: "When both balls are on the putting green, if the player of the ball furthest from the hole claims that the nearer ball interferes with his putt, the nearer ball, upon request, shall be lifted or played at the option of its owner."

It was contended by the objectors to the original rule that the playing of the farther ball first removed some of the elements of competition allowed the opponent to know just what he had to do after the other man had holed out and made the owner of the nearer ball play from two to three shots in rather rapid succession.

In the finale at Midlothian only one partial stymie was laid during the 58 holes. Outmet lifting his ball on the ninth hole, while Edwards putted. It frequently happens, however, that Edwards, with his poor putting on the first nine, would have had to play three putts in a row, while Outmet stood by and determined just what he had to do and how to do it. That was because Edwards was frequently nearer the flag on his approaches, but could not putt dead, or get down from his first attempt.

As the play went, it could have done Edwards no harm to play the nearer ball first, for he took 22 putts on the first nine, when only 15 were indicated by his long game and approaches, which were in general better than Outmet's.

Comfort for Louisville.

Here is Louisville's comfort out of the American association race: It beat 22 games played, and it broke even or better with every team in the league, being the only team to make such a good showing. It got only an even break with the Toledo tall ends and thus can blame Roger Bresnahan for beating it out of the pennant.

SEE HIGH FINANCE IN ORGANIZED BASEBALL

The White Sox and the Giants are the big profit makers, while the Red Sox, Cleveland and Detroit show a good balance on the right side of the ledger. The Yankees have been laboring under very heavy expenses, but are expected to break even, while the Phillies, too, are making money for their owners. The losing propositions this year are the Washington, Browns, Athletics, Brooklyn, Cubs, Braves and Pirates. War, weather and baseball conditions in general are held responsible for the cutting down, and in some cases cutting out, of profits.

CHIEF MEYERS IS REAL INDIAN

Boston Catcher Played Both Football and Baseball While at Dartmouth — Is Able Actor.

John T. Meyers, or Tortes, if you want the Indian of it, was born in Riverside, Cal., and is a full-blooded Miaman Indian. His grandfather was a chief and the Boston Braves' catcher therefore comes honestly by his nickname. Meyers is twenty-eight years old and has played baseball in almost every part of the country. He played semi-professional ball in California and the Southwest until he had saved enough to go to college.

At Dartmouth he played both football and baseball, and in the deepest portion of the baseball field at Hanover there is a stake driven into the ground which marks the spot where a home run by Meyers came to rest. It was the longest hit ever seen by the collegians and no one has approached it since Meyers left Dartmouth.

The Indian got his first taste of league baseball in the Tri-State. St. Paul of the American association snapped him up and there he made such a good record that McGraw paid $6,000 for his release. He at once showed hitting ability, hanging up the wonderful record of 26 home runs on the first training trip, but his catching was very far below big league standards. When McGraw finally let the Indian go he was picked up by the Brooklyn Dodgers and from there went to the Boston Braves. In addition to his catching ability Meyers is an able actor.

GRIDIRON SPORT MIGHT DIE

Effect of Action of Yale, Harvard and Princeton is Puzzling to Football Fans.

The fact that Yale, Princeton and Harvard, recognized as the leaders in football, have suspended activities on the gridiron for the duration of the war, has set the devotees of the game to thinking. The universal question of those interested in the matter is: What ultimate effect will this have on the sport pursued by the smaller colleges?

Is football to die until after the war or will those who have the sport's interest at heart bring strong enough pressure to bear for its conservation? Action by the "Big Three" in canceling their schedules is patriotic indeed. It is true, but there is probably some practical method obtainable which will give the young collegian a chance to indulge in his favorite autumn sport. Football should not be allowed to die a natural death when means can be adopted for its preservation. It is part of every college man's life, and without its moral and physical effect he will suffer.

BEAVER FALLS IS WINNER OVER H. S. BY 20 TO 0 SCORE

Three Touchdowns, All on Flukes, Scored by Visitors;
Two Goals Kicked.

LOCALS' OFFENSIVE WEAK

Bears No Good Work on Defense; Only Once is Beaver Falls' Goal Threatened and Then Connellsville Can Not Push Ball Over the Line.

Beaten by three touchdowns, all of the fluke variety, in a game which should have been won, Connellsville high went down to defeat for the fourth time in succession Saturday afternoon on Fayette field. Beaver Falls high, aided by the breaks of the game and by Connellsville's miscues, rather than by any good play on her own part, left the field a winner, by a score of 20-0. The game was played in a drizzling rain, cold and penetrating, before a handful of spectators.

Connellsville put up some fine defense work, but her offense was miserably weak. At only one period was Beaver Falls' goal threatened, and that was just before the end of the game, when two long forwards brought the locals to within five yards of the goal. Four successive plunges at the center of the line failed to get a gain, however, and the ball went back to the visitors. It was a heartbreaking moment for Connellsville followers when the team, so close to scoring, fell down.

"All three of the visitors' touchdowns were flukes. Two were the result of recovered Connellsville fumbles while the third came on an intercepted forward pass. The first score was made at the very end of the first half. Time, in fact, was called before the completion of the play, but after the ball had been set in motion, Connellsville, holding the ball, had been trying a trick play of the lateral pass variety. Bob Lyon tumbled the slippery pigskin. Smith, Beaver Falls' center, scooped the ball from the ground, and with a clear field ahead of him, made for the goal line, 30 yards away. Captain McCormick of the locals was not after him, diving at him from behind and missing, at the 10 yard line. Wagner tackled the runner and threw him just as he crossed the line. Houston failed the goal.

The second touchdown came as a result of poor headwork on Connellsville's part. With Bob Lyon tearing through the line for from five to 10 yards every time he was given the ball, instead of plunging on, Connellsville elected to open upon a forward passing game, especially doubtful on a wet day when the ball is slippery and hard to hold. Incomplete forward followed incomplete forward. Beaver Falls was trying the same game, with a little more success than Connellsville. There were several exchanges of punts. Connellsville then tried three forwards in succession. H. McCandless intercepted the third one, dodged one man and ran, with both teams trailing behind him, 50 yards to the goal line. Houston kicked goal.

In the last quarter, H. McCandless got off the beautiful punt. Weisberger, who had not been playing back fat enough, just got his fingers on it, oval as it passed over his head. A Beaver Falls man fell on the ball on Connellsville's one-yard line. One plunge was stopped, but Quarterback Thomas went over the goal on the next lineup. Houston kicked goal.

Shortly before the end of the game, Connellsville pulled two successful forwards which carried her almost the length of the field. Bill Lyon threw both. Bob Lyon caught the first and Weisberger the second. Connellsville was on the Beaver Falls five-yard line, where Weisberger had finally been downed. Prospects were bright for a score, but Bob and Bill Lyon, and Moore were alike unable to get across. Connellsville drew down a lot of penalties during the game for unnecessary roughness.

The lineup: Beaver Falls.
DoBolt — left end J. McCandless

HYSTERICIS NOT NEEDED

Over Coal Situation, Says Pennsylvania's Fuel Administrator.

William Potter, fuel administrator for Pennsylvania, in a statement asks that people to exercise patience until the immediate coal situation is relieved.

"The Washington authorities have suggested that there should be no hysterical movement spread among the people about a short supply of coal," says Mr. Potter. "This would tend to clog the proper distribution of coal at the present time by customers asking for a supply in excess of their immediate needs."

"Every effort will be made to give a just distribution of coal and there is no more immediate factor in bringing this about than the newspapers, whose assistance we need in this direction, so that the people may not become excited, but exercise patience until the immediate situation is relieved."

FREIGHT TRAFFIC HAS MADE BIG GAIN —NEAR 50 PER CENT

As Compared With Records
Made Two and Three Years Ago.

INCREASED EFFICIENCY

Of Operation Not Increase in Facilities Has Made the Gain Possible; Have Only One and One-Half Per Cent More Equipment Than in 1916.

"In the month of July the railways of the United States handled 43 per cent more freight traffic than in July, 1915, and 49 per cent more than in July, 1914," says the Railway Age Gazette. "The Railroads' War Board has just issued statistics showing that the ton mileage of freight handled in July, 1917, was 20.2 per cent more than it was in the same month of 1916. This increase in the traffic handled reflects a remarkable performance in view of the fact that the traffic of 1916 far surpassed all records up to that time. Because 1916 was a record year, it is necessary to compare the results being obtained now with those of years prior to 1916 in order to realize fully the magnitude of the achievements of the railways in handling the present volume of business as well as they are. The increase in freight traffic in July, 1917, over July, 1915, exceeded the annual freight business of the railways of Japan, Spain, Sweden, New South Wales, Switzerland and Brazil combined."

"It should be borne in mind that there has been almost no increase in railway facilities within the last two years. There was an actual decrease in the number of locomotives and freight cars in service on June 30, 1916, as compared with the number in service on June 30, 1915. The number of locomotives and freight cars has increased within the last year, but the number now in service certainly is not more than 1 1/2 per cent more than it was two years ago. In other words, the roads are handling 50 per cent more traffic than they were two years ago with perhaps 1 1/2 per cent more locomotives and cars."

"Of course, business was comparatively dull at this time two years ago. There were 265,000 surplus freight cars on August 1, 1915; on the other hand, there is a car shortage now; but there would be a vastly larger number of unutilized requisitions for cars if there had not been within the last two years an enormous increase in the efficiency with which railway equipment is operated."

"We note that the coal mine operators of the country have a friend in official life at Washington. The United States Geological Survey has issued a statement to the press dated October 11, which bears the caption, 'Coal Mines Doing Their Bit. Daily Output of Coal Breaks All Records to Meet This Year's Demands, 1917. Tonnage Promises to Exceed 1916 Records by 25 Per Cent.' If the coal mines are 'doing their bit' by increasing their output, 25 per cent as compared with 1915, what may be said for the railways, which are handling 50 per cent more traffic than in 1915? The record being made by the mines is fine, and deserves all the commendation which can be bestowed upon it. We could wish, however, that there was some government department which would show as much pride regarding what the railways are doing as the Geological Survey very properly shows regarding what the mines are doing, for the achievement of the railways is relatively greater than that of the mines."
